The Bruin Resource Center’s Students with Dependents Program provides caring and personalized support to UCLA students who are parents, guardians, and caregivers. Our mission is to promote the success, well-being, and personal development of UCLA students with children and their families. Our services are available to all UCLA undergraduates, graduate and professional school students.

Through programs and advocacy, the Students with Dependents Program can provide...

- Information, referrals, and support to navigate UCLA ranging from adjusting to the quarter system to accessing childcare, financial aid, & affordable family housing
- Access to information about resources within the larger community
- On-site application and verification for CalFresh (food stamps) & MediCal and assistance with Cal Works/GAIN
- Awareness of the challenges parenting students face and advocacy for inclusion
- Quarterly workshops to help strengthen your skills as a parenting student
- Social events to help foster support and a sense of community and inclusion on campus
- A quiet place to study and relax between classes with fellow parenting students
- Weekly emails sent throughout the quarter informing you of jobs, scholarships, and events pertinent to student parents
- Family friendly graduation celebration in June

Come by our office or email us to get more information.

Students with Dependents Program – Bruin Resource Center

Open Monday-Friday, 9-5
Student Activities Center, B44
http://www.swd.ucla.edu
gcortes@saonet.ucla.edu
(310) 794-1823